

PERSONAL DATA PRIVACY POLICY

1 Information we collect

With the subscription to the mailing lists, access to intranets and SVN, the Resilient HPC initiative collects personal information such as name, organization, address, email address or phone number as well as other information you submit to us to receive certain the Resilient HPC initiative information and for get connected to the consortium. We also collect technical information about your computer, device and connection information, that do not require an explicit consent by the users to be deployed, such as browsing or session cookies to log in to the website and IP address. We cannot see which individual visitors are behind which visits to our website.

2 How we use your information

We use your personal information to:

- Provide and manage your access to and use of the service of Resilient HPC initiative (as access to mailing lists, intranet, SVN, etc...)
- Internal communication between the partners;
- Disseminate project information among the partners;
- Respond to your requests, comments and concerns;
- Notify you about changes, updates and other announcements.

3 Information we share with third parties

We do not sell, trade or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personal identifiable information unless we provide you with advance notice. This does not include website hosting partners and other parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential.

We use cookies from third parties and specifically those of the service offered by Google Analytics; which is a web statistics service offered by Google, Inc. For more information, please see <https://support.google.com/analytics/?hl=en#topic=1008008>

4 Accessing and updating your information

Registered users (such as partners, observers) may access and update their personal information or deactivate their user account by contacting the Resilient HPC initiative project manager at resilienthpc@bsc.es. In the case of the intranet, the registered user can cancel their account on their own at the link Cancel account. Other users can contact the Resilient HPC initiative coordinator by email at the contact details below.

You have the right under European and certain other privacy and data protection laws, as may be applicable, to request free of charge (i) access to and correction or deletion of your personal information; (ii) restriction of our processing of your personal information; (iii) objection to our processing; and (iv) portability of your personal information. If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please contact us as the contact details below. We will respond to your request consistent with applicable laws.

5 Unsubscribing

If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving further emails, you have to send an email to resilienthpc@bsc.es

6 Data retention & security

We retain your personal information for as long as necessary to provide essential purposes of the Resilient HPC initiative. The personal data you have provided will be incorporated to the files of BSC-CNS servers, CIF: S-0800099-D located in C/ Jordi Girona n. 31, 08034 Barcelona (Spain). We are committed to using appropriate technical and organizational measures intended to protect the security of your personal information.

7 Contact

If you have any questions, comments, complaints or requests regarding this privacy policy or our processing of your information, please contact us by email:

Email: resilienthpc@bsc.es¹

Resilient HPC coordination
Barcelona Supercomputing Center
c/ Jordi Girona 29 Nexus II building
Barcelona 08034
Spain

¹ BSC has an institutional data officer for concrete related matters. You can consult it at <https://www.bsc.es/legal-notice>